OTHER REASONS OR FURTHER EXPLANATION:

The United States moved to detain the Defendant pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2) as posing a serious risk of flight or non-appearance. The Court held a hearing on the issue of detention and took judicial notice of the information in the Pretrial Services Report and Defendant's Exhibits. After considering the Pretrial Services Report, the Defendant's Exhibits, the testimony presented at the hearing, the proffer of the Defendant, and the factors contained in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g), the Court concludes that the United States has met its burden to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the Defendant poses a serious risk of flight which cannot reasonably be addressed by conditions of release. The Court bases this conclusion on the Defendant's history and characteristics which demonstrate repeated violations of prior bonds and failures to appear, in addition to bond revocations. Several of the Defendant's failures to appear are the result of him being in custody in the Montgomery County jail, but he was on bond when taken into custody in Montgomery County. The Defendant's repeated failures to comply with conditions of bond demonstrate that there are no conditions this Court can set that will reasonably address the risk of nonappearance in this case.

Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
